

For these new Year 9 Pupils, starting at Timaru Girls' High School School was a day for fun and making new friends rather than the over-whelming and anxious time many pupils go through on their first day a a new school.

